

MILNE, JAMES FRASER

Born Feb. 23, 1920, Jim grew up in Winnipeg and studied geology at the University of Manitoba. He enlisted in the Royal Canadian Air Force in 1942 and became a Flying Officer, then served as a navigation instructor at various air training bases in the three prairie provinces until 1945. He married Betty in 1944 and they had four children: Carol, Wendy, Julie, and Dave. After the war, Jim completed his geology degree and then worked for Gulf Oil in Iran, Kuwait, Cameroon, Nigeria, and Norway while his family remained in Calgary. Jim and Betty retired to Invermere in 1985.

