

STIEGER, JOHN FREDERICK

Born in Hamburg, Germany in 1922, John came to Montreal as a baby with his parents. He served in the Canadian Army with the Second Royal Canadian Artillery Survey Division from 1942 to 1945. He married Norma and they had one child, John (Jay.) After completing his Bachelor of Commerce degree at McGill University, he was Account Manager for IBM in Toronto. A faithful member of the Rotary Club, he was honoured for his dedication to the Life Line Program. John is a great sports fan and avid reader. A regular valley visitor since 1985, he has lived permanently in Invermere since 2014.
